The Honorable Hugh Butler
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Butler:

This is in reply to your letter of 30 April 1954, concerning [redacted] who states that she has had a nervous breakdown as the result of "the manner in which an investigation was conducted by the Central Intelligence Agency".

We have thoroughly checked our records and find that on 8 December 1947 this Agency received a Personal History Statement and Standard Form 57 "Application for Federal Employment" from [redacted]. On 12 December 1947 she was called and asked whether she would come in to take certain tests. She indicated on that date that she was no longer interested in employment, and our files were closed. No investigation was ever made of [redacted] by this Agency.

I trust that the above information will be sufficient to reply to [redacted] inquiry. If we may be of any further assistance, please call on us.
